

REOPENING IDJJ

Transition Plan To Restore Operations

The following schedule details when IDJJ will resume some of the operations that were suspended due to COVID-19. Each item is subject to modified procedures that maintain strict screening, cleaning, social distancing and masking protocols. IDJJ will amend operations again if the virus re-surges. Restored operations will reflect the status of the region.

May
18

- Southern Region begins intakes from juvenile detention centers
  - Weekly rotation schedule begins for all program staff
-

June
1

- Southern region program staff and educators return from rotation schedule
  - Contractual programming can resume in Southern region
  - Remote staff may return to office as needed
  - Mixing units may resume in Southern region
  - Southern region group treatments may resume
-

June
8

- Northern region resumes intakes from juvenile detention centers
  - Program and education staff return to IYC Warrenville
  - Contractual programming resumes at IYC Warrenville
  - Southern region volunteers may resume
  - Southern region outdoor community activities may resume
  - Court writs resume pending direction from courts
-

June
15

- Program and education staff return to IYC Chicago and St. Charles
- Contractual programming resumes at IYC Chicago and St. Charles
- Youth may mix between units in Northern region

REOPENING IDJJ

Transition Plan To Restore Operations

The following schedule details when IDJJ will resume some of the operations that were suspended due to COVID-19. Each item is subject to modified procedures that maintain strict screening, cleaning, social distancing and masking protocols. IDJJ will amend operations again if the virus re-surges. Restored operations will reflect the status of the region.

June
22

- Northern Region volunteers may resume
  - Northern Region visitation may resume
  - Northern Region outdoor community programming may resume
-

June
29

- Monitor outcomes of the resumed operations
  - Continue transition plan
-

July
6

- Aftercare may return to office as needed
  - Mixing units may resume at IYC Chicago
  - Contact allowed during family visits
  - Scheduled intake cohorts from county detention centers
  - continue
  - Class/group sizes of up to 10 permitted in the southern region
  - Monitoring daily temperatures and tracking cases and attendance continues
-

July
13

- Mixing units may resume at IYC St. Charles
- Class/group sizes of up to 10 youth permitted in Northern region

REOPENING IDJJ

Transition Plan To Restore Operations

The following schedule details when IDJJ will resume some of the operations that were suspended due to COVID-19. Each item is subject to modified procedures that maintain strict screening, cleaning, social distancing and masking protocols. IDJJ will amend operations again if the virus re-surges. Restored operations will reflect the status of the region.

July
20

- In-person staff training by region can begin with safety protocols in place
-

July
27

- Backlog of intakes from county detention centers projected to end
  - Intakes from country detention centers continue
-

August
3

- Administrative offices begin alternate day/remote schedules
  - Continue monitoring outcomes of resumed operations
-